COLLECTION: WOLRD MISSIONS OCTOBER 23-24 – Next weekend October 23 & 24 we will be taking up a collection to support Missions throughout the world. When using a plain envelope or one of general purpose envelope please put World Missions, your name and your home parish on the outside of the envelope. By sharing some of our treasures we are joining in the missionary work of the Church, along with our prayers.

PLEASE UPDATE YOUR CONTACT INFORMATION – Many have disconnected their landlines and are only using cell phone numbers. Please write down your name and cell phone number and place your updated information in the collection basket or call the parish office to update your contact information. Your number is used for notifying you about prayer requests, any cancellations due to weather or circumstances and when requesting food for funeral dinners (all are contacted at some time to donate for funeral dinners). If possible you will be contacted through a text so you can identify who is messaging you. When you are contacted to request a food donation please take the time to respond to this request – thank you.

WELCOME! – If you are visiting our church and would like to become a part of our parish family, please contact the parish office; 765-478-3242.

NOTE FROM LAWSON – During his talk at St. Anne, Ken Ogorek mentioned the series, The Chosen. I’m always leery of anything Hollywoodish that depicts Jesus. He’s always too wimpy, or weird or dazed. I held off jumping on the bandwagon for this one, but I’d like to whole-heartedly jump on and say, “WATCH IT! DO IT!”

The Chosen is a crazy experiment funded by regular people giving until enough is raised to film a season—about $10,000,000. Wowie. They are working on their third season, there are two seasons already available in multiple languages and countries, The guy who plays Jesus is a Catholic, and a collaborator with Word on Fire. Bishop Barron is a big fan! This show is beautiful, and rich, surprising and compelling, thoughtful and funny. It's full of Scripture, but is not a theological work. Is anyone old enough to remember the You Are There series? Lots of facts, but also lots of creative imagery that put you in the time and place of a historical event? That's what The Chosen does. It puts you in that distant time, in that foreign place, with these ridiculously normal human beings who try to follow Jesus in his divine humanity who they don't understand at all. Sound familiar? It is, and it is good, it is very, very good.

How do you watch it? Well, you're going to need your computer or a Roku tv or firestick or something that streams video. It's not on Netflix or Hulu, but it is free! You can watch from it's own website—google The Angel Studios Network, and it will come right up. If you have YouTube, The Chosen is available there. Or you can get The Chosen app from iTunes or Google and watch that way.

Don't expect this series to get everything exactly the way you have it in your head, it's not written by God! But it has a lot of support from all of Christendom, and it is just plain perfect for bingeing. Look and see, and I bet you jump on the bandwagon. Let me know!

Adult Faith Formation Small Group meets this Thursday at 10 a.m. at St. Elizabeth. Bring your own coffee. It's not about what you know, it's about what we can learn together from Scripture, Church teaching, and our experiences with life and faith. Bring your own coffee and join us.
